NO SHAME IN CANCER AVERS DR. FREEMAN

Dr. Reichelderfer Urges Publicity of Fact That Early Stages of Disease Can Be Cured.

Rev. James E. Freeman, rector of he Church of the Epiphany, today ancer with disgrace, in addressing a onday crowd at Keith's Theater nder direction of the American Solety for the Control of Cancer.

campaigning in the interest cer week.

Before the Lions Club, in the Willard Hotel, Dr. E. A. Merritt stressed the necessity of wide publicity concerning the disease. Dr. O. B. Hunter told the Optimists, meeting in the Arilington Hotel, of the symptoms and growth of cancerous tumors. He pointed out steps imperative for cure.

JOHN D. MIGRATES.

Oil King on Way to Warmer Climes.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., November 16.—
John D. Rockefeller began his annual visit to his homes in warmer climes today, when he motored to his residence in Lakewood, N. J., where he will continue his daily round of golf.

The Lakewood home, like his other estates, is equipped with a private golf course. Late next month Mr. Rockefeller will go to his Ormond Beach, Fla., estate for the winter.

BONAR LAW WINS MAJORITY IN CLOSE BRITISH ELECTION

Labor suffered a hard setback in he Widnes division of Lancashire, Parsee Wins Seat.

Laborites Gain in Barnsley.

Dr. Freeman pointed out that the association of shame with the disease was brought about by ignorance and was entirely unwarranted. Dr. Luther H. Reichelderfer, who spoke following Dr. Freeman, discussed the origin and progress of cancerous growths and urged that publicity be given to the fact that early attention usually effects a sure qure. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Harry H. Kerr.

Means to combat cancer were described to members of the Lions and Optimist clubs yesterday by speakers campaigning in the interest of Cancer week.

Before the Lions Club in the Wils.

Mr. Bonar Law polled 15.437; Ross-yn Mitchell, laborite, 12.923, and Sir George Paish, Asquithian liberal, 2,518.

One the whole the election was remarkable for its good humor. The old-time bitterness and fiaunting of personalities were almost absent. Party colors were worn very little. But in one district a party went to the length of coloring two miles of streets blue, indicating to the electors their "path to duty,"

Stories of babes and sucklings who accidentally were enrolled on the registers, and who were taken to the polls to exercise their franchise, multiply, while never before was there such a crop of centenarians as tottered to the various booths yesterday. One of these veterans was Sergt. McCalle, said to be the last survivor of the siege of Lucknow. Another was Frank Draper, reputed to have been a friend of Charles Dickens.

Parsee Wins Seat. Maj. Cohen Re-Elected. At Liverpool, Fairfield division Maj. J. B. B. Cohen, conservative, who Maj. J. B. B. Cohen, conservative, who recently attended the American Legion convention, was re-elected, polling 14.316. G. Porter, labor, polled 8.838 Maj. Cohen's vote was nearly twice that in the last election.

John Robert Clynes, one of the prominent labor leaders, was elected for the Platting division of Manchester with 15,683, Frank A. Holmes, conservative, 14,314. Mr. Clynes was unopposed in the last election.

Derwent Hall Caine, the novelist's son and labor candidate, was defeated in Reading, the conservative candidate, Maj. the Honorable E. Cadogan, retaining the seat.

Herbert H. Asquith was re-elected in Paisley, but his majority was greatly reduced. He received 15,005 votes and his labor opponent. J. M. Biggar, 14,689. At the by-election in February, 1920, Mr. Asquith polled 14,736 and Mr. Biggar 11,902.

Lady Emmott, Asquithian liberal, was defeated for the east Toxteth division of Liverpool, polling 9,984 against included the list, polling 24,762.

Laborites Gain in Barnsley. Miss Rathbone Defeated.

Miss Eleanor Rathbone, independent, was defeated for the east Toxteth division of Liverpool, polling 9,984 against 15,149 for the conservative, J. S. Rankin. Additional labor gains included the Bridgeton division of Glasgow, where a Georgeite was defeated; Leicester, west; Newcastle-on-Tyne, west, where a Georgeite was beaten by a narrow margin; Edmonton, captured from the conservatives; the Elland division of York-Laborites Gain in Barnsley.

Barnsley was a labor gain, the laborite, J. S. Potts, polling 14,728 against Col. Maurice Moore, George-ite-liberal, with 12,011.

Great Yarmouth registered the first change, the liberal, Arthur Harbord, with 9,835, defeating Lieut. Col. O. de W. Crookshank, conservative, 8,917, and the labor candidate, Arthur Whiting; 2,574.

Labor gained another seat in the Shettlestown division of Glascow, J. Wheatley, polling 14,695 to 9,704 for T. B. W. Ramsay, Georgeite. The third candidate. Alfred Guy, communist, polled 470.

The Springburn. Tradeston, Cam-tion, was elected on the conservative ticket for Wolverhampton.

The Springburn. Tradeston, Camachie, Cathcart and Maryhill divisions of Glascow were all sensational turnovers from conservative to labor, which returned also the Gorbals division. Labor gained Tottenham, North, from the conservatives.

Gains for Censervatives.

The conservatives made gains in Leyton, East, and Leyton, West, the bentral division of Portsmouth, the Dartford division of Kent and the Pudsey division of Kent and the Dartford division of Kent and the Bir Alfred Mond, minister of health in the Lloyd George cabinet, keepa his seat in West Swansea. Sir Henry Norman, Georgeite liberal, retains his seat for Blackburn, sharing representation of the borough as before, with a conservative. Sir Harry Brittain, conservative, was re-elected for the conservative for East Ham, north.

Col. Arthur Lynch of Boer war memory, standing as a laborite in Hackney Central, was defeated by C. W. Crook, conservative for East Ham, north.

Labor won a big victory in Shefield, Attercliffe division, C. H. Wilson capturing the seat from the Georgeite, T. W. Casey, by a vote of 16,206 to 7,582. This is one of the biggest turnovers thus far, Casey being elected for the last house with a vote of 12,308 to the laborite candidate's 6,539.

Laborite Wins is Newcastle.

Another striking labor gain was in Newcastle-on-Tyne, central division, where C. P. Trevelyan, one of labor's "intelligentsia." defeated the retiring conservative, Sir George Renwick, 13,709 to 8,639. Renwick had a majority of 4,438 over the laborite in the last election.

Mr. Trevelyan was parliamentary secretary to the board of education in
